

IS YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD READY?

Emergency preparedness Information for you and your Community

"Houston Neighborhood Ready Training"

Thursday, April 26, 2012

Kashmere Multi-Service Center

4802 Lockwood, Houston, Texas 77026

6-9 PM

To RSVP, please contact:

Paula Johnson: paula.johnson@houston.tx.gov, (832) 393-4620 or

Sheilanee Sen: sheilanee.sen@houston.tx.gov, (832) 393-5050

In 95% of all emergencies, bystanders or the victims themselves are the first to provide emergency help or to perform a rescue. Communication and planning are key to keeping our families, homes and neighborhoods safer from threats of crime, terrorism, public health issues, and disasters of all kinds.

Table of Contents for the 60-90 minute program includes:

- Are You and Your Neighborhood Ready?

- Disasters that could affect the Neighborhood

- Making a Plan

- Building a Kit

- Knowing your Neighbors

- Staying Informed

Facilitators of this program include CERT members, Civic Club Leaders, Faith Based Leaders, Citizen Volunteers and Jurisdiction Personnel who have attended a facilitator training program.

Make a Plan, Build a Kit, Stay Informed, and Know Your Neighbors.
